Harassment Prevention Policy (Massachusetts)

TalentWave (the Company) is committed to providing a work environment free of harassment. The Company complies with Massachusetts law and maintains a strict policy prohibiting sexual harassment and harassment against employees, TalentWave payrolled contractors, or applicants for employment based on race, color, religious creed, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions), gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, age (40 and over), military status, certain criminal records, genetic information or testing, HIV testing, a personal admission to a facility for the care and treatment of a mentally ill person and taking of parental leave. The Company will not tolerate discrimination or harassment based upon these characteristics or any other characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local law.

All employees and TalentWave payrolled contractors are expected to comply with the Company's Harassment Prevention policy. While the Harassment Prevention policy sets forth the Company's goals of promoting a workplace that is free of harassment, the policy is not designed or intended to limit the Company's authority to discipline or take remedial action for workplace conduct that we deem unacceptable, regardless of whether that conduct satisfies the definition of unlawful harassment.

Any employee or TalentWave payrolled contractor who believes that he or she has been harassed or discriminated against should provide a written or verbal report to his or her supervisor, another member of management, and to the Company representative as soon as possible. The responsibility to investigate complaints of harassment has been assigned to the Company – contact your Company representative. Employees or TalentWave payrolled contractors who believe they have been harassed or discriminated against may also file a formal complaint with either or both of the government agencies listed below:
